APPLICABLE NATIONAL PARK SERVICE MISSION GOALS

- Ia Natural and cultural resources and associated values are protected, restored and maintained in good condition and managed within their broader ecosystem and cultural context.
- Ib The National Park Service contributes to knowledge about natural and cultural resources and associated values; management decisions about resources and visitors are based on adequate scholarly and scientific information.
- IIa Visitors safely enjoy and are satisfied with the availability, accessibility, diversity, and quality of park facilities, services, and appropriate recreational opportunities.
- IIb Park visitors and the general public understand and appreciate the preservation of parks and their resources for this and future generations.
- IIIa Natural and cultural resources are conserved through formal partnership programs.
- IIIb Through partnerships with other Federal, State, and local agencies and nonprofit organizations, a nationwide system of parks, open space, rivers, and trails provides educational, recreational, and conservation benefits for the American people.

Martin Luther King, Jr., Center for Nonviolent Social Change
FY 1999 Estimated Program and Anticipated Accomplishments

Enacted: $534,000

The National Park Service was directed by Congress, through Public Law 96-428, "with preserving and interpreting the places where Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was born, where he lived, worked, worshipped, and where he is buried." The Freedom Hall Complex of the King Center offers displays and historic information on the life, teachings and writings of Dr. King. The King Center is operated and maintained for these purposes as expressed in Public Law 96-428. Funds provided by the National Park Service help to defray maintenance and repair costs incurred by the King Center for the public purpose identified in the basic grant agreement with the Service. Federal support of the center is proposed to remain unchanged in FY 2000.
